

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

A film combination or multilayer film with at least two layers is provided for particular use as a release film for membranes that contain oil. At least two film layers are made from different materials.